NEW YORK ATHLETES IN CATHOLIC U. MEET--RACING--OTHER SPORTS

Melrose, Paulist and New York A. C. Will Run in Brookland Games.

Several organizations have already signified their intention of entering the South Atlantic Intercollegiate Athletic Association contests to be held in the new Catholic University gymnasium on March 13. Applications are on hand from the Melrose Athletic Club, of New York, the Paulist Athletic Club, and the the Paulist Athletic Club, and the New York Athletic Club. Of local interest will be the ap-pearance of LeGendre, Griffin and Auray, of Georgetown. Arrange-ments are being made for these stars to run in a special fifty-yard dash. Graduate Manager Cox hopes to enter a large Georgetown team in addition to his relay team being pitted against that of the Melrose A. C. in a special relay race. Delegations are expected from many athletic clubs, colleges and universities in this section.

DEVERE WILL MEET FULTON IN COMEBACK

Chicago, Feb. 14.-Bob Devere, the Fafi River heavy-weight fighter who was considered of championship ma-terial a few years ago, is in training for a match with Fred Fulton, the Minnesoia plasterer, who is seeking another chance at Jack Dempsey.

This bout, which is to take place in Omaha the latter part of March is in the nature of a comeback for Devere ican circus through the different countries in South America for the past four years. Devere also claims to have won the heavy-weight chamship of the South American con-

PITTSBURG SWIMMERS DEFEATED BY NAVY

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 14.—After cleaning up Pennsylvania in the wrestling and gymnastic engagement today the midshipmen went to work and put it all over the swimmers of the University of Pittsburg. The score was 45 to 14. The Pittsburg tank men did not show as much prowess as had been them. They captured them. They captured was in the control of the Marshall. Pittsburg third. Pitt's other four points resulted from third place in four events.
